ENTREPRENEUR SURPRISES NEW HOPE GRIEF SUPPORT COMMUNITY'S FOUNDER, SUSAN K. BEENEY, R.N. WITH AN UNEXPECTED GIFT ON ABC'S
"SECRET MILLIONAIRE"

LONG BEACH, CA -- "Secret Millionaire" is a one-hour alternative series on ABC 7 that follows six of America's most successful business people as they spend time visiting non-profits throughout the United States. Their mission is to discover deserving individuals who continually sacrifice everything to help those in need, and ultimately encourage others to do the same. Throughout this incredible, life-changing experience, the Secret Millionaires will attempt to remain undiscovered, coming face to face with extraordinary people battling the odds every day of their lives. On the final day, in an emotional and dramatic climax, they reveal their true identities. Ultimately, the millionaires will each give away a great deal of their own money, changing lives forever and encouraging others to keep giving back.

In October, 2011 a gifted entrepreneur was sent undercover as a volunteer with a camera crew and approached New Hope Grief Support Community. The group shared with them that they were filming a documentary about volunteering in America. New Hope agreed to be filmed; little did they know that the supposed volunteer was really a wealthy entrepreneur. Susan K. Beeney, New Hope's founder invited the volunteer to help them with a memorial garden project. The memorial was for a family they had supported at a previous family grief camp after the death of their son. During the garden project the volunteer gave much of their time, learned about New Hope's mission, built relationships with Sue, New Hope staff, other volunteers, and the family they were serving. Having no idea, the entrepreneur will reveal her true identity and surprise her new friends with a donation from her own fortune, on "Secret Millionaire," SUNDAY, JULY 8th (8:00-9:00 p.m., PST) on The ABC Television Network. Be sure to watch this memorable heartfelt moment as emotions run high and the entrepreneur reveals who they are, and blesses New Hope with a gift that will change more lives forever.
